

CHÂTEAU TASSIN

BORDEAUX ROUGE

*Château Tassin is located within the municipal district of Rions (from the Latin Rivium or “built on rock”), one of the region’s oldest medieval towns. Fortified around the 12th century, Rions has managed to preserve its old ramparts, as well as its narrow winding streets bordered by old picturesque buildings. The château’s vineyard stretches across both the slopes overlooking the town and the plains bordering the Garonne River. The château was originally located on “Tassin’s Isle”, but the extraction of gravel and sand from the riverbed (since forbidden) eventually undermined its foundations. The Château Tassin comes in Bordeaux and Bordeaux Supérieur.*

Ruby red in colour, Château Tassin is round and ample in the mouth, with elegant tannins. A charming wine to enjoy with roasts and poultry.
